

What are Debt Funds?:

How do they work?

POST 6

Debt funds invest in Debentures and Fixed income securities like:

T-bills, Government securities, Money market instruments, Corporate bonds and Other debt securities

These funds are less risky compared to equity funds

Not affected by fluctuations in the stock markets

Lower risk, therefore the returns are limited

Different funds available for different time horizons of investment

