

Income Tax Returns (ITR) is a form in which individuals provide information about the income earned, exemptions allowed, deductions and the tax payable in the financial year to the income tax department.

The ITR needs to be filed every year before the specified due date.

